Poem to Share

Life doesn't frighten me

Maya Angelou

Life doesn't frighten me, Not at all. I've known too many terrors, Seen too many falls.

Climbed too many mountains, Crossed too many seas, Felt the pain of heartbreak, And the sting of disease.

I've watched the earth shake, And the sky turn red. I've seen the mighty fall, And the brave lie dead.

But life doesn't frighten me, Not at all. I've learned to be courageous, And to rise when I fall.

For though life can be harsh, And the road can be rough, I know I have the strength, And the will to be tough.

So bring on the challenges, And the struggles that come. For life doesn't frighten me, Not at all, not one.

Laughing Matters

Breakfast

A wife was making a breakfast of fried eggs for her husband. Suddenly, her husband burst into the kitchen.

'Careful,' he said, 'CAREFUL! Put in some more butter! Oh my gosh! You're cooking too many at once. TOO MANY!
Turn them! TURN THEM NOW!

We need more butter.

Oh my gosh! WHERE are we going to get MORE BUTTER?

They're going to STICK! Careful.

CAREFUL! I said be CAREFUL!

You NEVER listen to me when you're cooking! Never!

Turn them! Hurry up!

Are you CRAZY? Have you LOST your mind?

Don't forget to salt them. You know you always forget to salt them.

Use the salt. USE THE SALT! THE SALT!'

The wife stared at him:

'What in the world is wrong with you? You think I don't know how to fry a couple of eggs?'

To which her husband calmly replied:

'I just wanted to show you what it feels like when I'm driving.'

The English Professor

An English professor asked his students to add punctuate the following words: "woman without her man is nothing"

The males in the class wrote "Woman, without her man, is nothing."

The Females wrote "Woman! Without her, man is nothing."
